

Jungle

HIGH FIVE:
JUNGLE'S FIFTH ANNIVERSARY
PULLOUT!
OUR BEST CAREER
ADVICE EVER

SPEAK EASY

HOW TO MAKE A
KI

S
B
TA
B
M
SO
AN C
T

A CAREER LIFT Attention plain-looking people: A recent study indicates that executives with camera-ready faces make more than the regular Joe or Jane. Don't fret, though. There are ways to level the playing field.

PROCEDURE	Liposuction	Blepharoplasty (eyelid tuck)	Hair transplant
RATIONALE	"Suits are more tailored now," says Dr. Steve Fallek, a board-certified plastic surgeon. "You can't hide under a double-breasted suit anymore."	"In the business world, you can't have sagging skin, dark lines, and fat under the eyes," says Dr. Fallek.	"Hair is the most important thing for men who are losing it," says Dr. Ken Washenik, of Bosley, a hair restoration company. "Men would rather be impotent than bald."
COST	$5,000-$10,000	$4,000-$8,000	$5,000-$10,000
AFFORDABLE ALTERNATIVES	Gym membership. Cost: $750-$1,500/year. Starvation diet. Cost: Nada. For women: Slimming muu muu. Cost: $29.95—and your client list. For men: Baggy hip-hop outfit. Cost: Your career.	For women: Anti-wrinkle cream and a pair of big sunglasses, $70-$95. Men—don't even go there.	Propecia treatment. Cost: $50-$60/month. Hairpiece. Cost: $1,000-$5,000. Spray-on hair in a can. Cost: $13.95—and your friends, family, and house pets.

WILL IT FLY?

HATCHING NEW PRODUCTS FROM HOT BRANDS

SEPTEMBER 2005

10 BOUTIQUE BOURBONS
4 GETAWAYS FOR CHILLING
2 HOT STOCKS FROM KATO
... AND A PARTRIDGE IN A PEAR TREE

THE ART OF SUCCESS