Star Jones: I Need a Boob Job!

Is Star Jones Reynolds looking for another perk? Maybe two! The new bride, 42 – who scored a slew of freebies for her November nuptials to banker Al Reynolds – announced on The View January 27 that her bosoms could use “a little lift – they’re saggy.” “She probably mentioned it on air for a reason,” says Mediaweek TV analyst Marc Berman. “She makes millions a year but likes free things.” Her rep responds, “Star’s ‘views’ are fully explored on The View every day. No additional comment is necessary.” A professional opinion on this (top-) heavy issue? “She’d look good! She has older-looking breasts and has lost volume,” NYC plastic surgeon Dr. Steve Fallek tells Us. Such uplifting news! MC

Star wants a lift because hubby Al (inset) “cares about boobs.”
